Mission statement

Zonta International is a leading global organization of professionals empowering women through service and advocacy.

Vision

Zonta International envisions a world in which women's rights are recognized as human rights and every woman is able to achieve her full potential.

In such a world, women have access to all resources and are represented in decision-making positions on an equal basis with men.

In such a world, no woman lives in fear of violence.

Values

Zonta International is an independent, nonpartisan and nonsectarian global network of professionals united through purpose, which takes positions based on democratic principles.

Guiding Principle

Women's rights are human rights, essential for the development of all peoples.

Zonta International endorses the values expressed in the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

What we do

Our programs, projects and actions build a better world by improving women's health and education, ensuring economic empowerment, strengthening women's representation in decision-making positions and working to end violence against women.

How we do it

We conduct business in an honest and trustworthy way, with respect for and acknowledgment of members' diversity

We shall not rest until

Women's rights are human rights and every woman is able to achieve her full potential

Every woman is literate and has access to resources on an equal basis as men

The world is free from violence against women
